Application for Financial Assistance for Missions

An individual must meet the following criteria:

1. Have completed membership requirements of AMRBC.
2. Be participating in an AMRBC trip .
3. Have a personal financial investment in their trip of at least 10% of the trip cost.
4. Have faithfully attempted to raise support from family and close friends and detail support raised below.
5. Attend pre-trip orientation and training sessions.
6. Have participated in the planning and execution of at least one of the previous year's fundraisers and the AMRBC Missions Conference.
 - i. If the applicant has not had sufficient time (due to recently joining AMRBC, or recently begun involvement in missions activities) to participate in the above a faith promise to do so in the next calendar year is necessary.
7. Be an adult. Adults are guaranteed full scholarship is they meet the above criteria and the funds are available. Adult scholarships will be awarded first. Any further funds allotted to a specific trip will then be divided between the student participants.

If the above criteria is met and your application is approved, you are eligible to receive a matching scholarship up to your personal contribution to the trip cost, not to exceed $1000, or 25% of the trip cost. Your personal contribution means money that comes directly from your own personal accounts – not money that comes from fundraisers, letter writing, donations, etc. The money will be paid directly to your sponsoring agency. The exact amount you will receive will be decided at the next monthly meeting of the Acts 1:8 committee after all applications are received. The application must be received at least 6 weeks before the final payment for the trip is due to allow the Acts 1:8 committee time to process it.

If you raise enough outside that you do not need the entire 25%, the remainder of your 25% may be shifted around to other team members who are in need (up to the $1000 maximum) or kept in the Missions Fund, at the discretion of the Acts 1:8 committee.

This application is not need based. No personal financial information, other than your personal contribution to the trip cost, is required. All applications that meet the above criteria will be approved.

If you apply for a scholarship from AMRBC, then we strongly encourage limiting your support raising inside the church to family and close personal friends.

You should receive a packet from your team leader with information on support raising.

Creative fundraising efforts are encouraged. You are allowed to do individual fundraisers at para-church events (i.e. selling concessions at Upward games, Fall Festival). These events will not be advertised churchwide, and no activities may occur immediately before, during, or after Sunday or Wednesday services.

If you have any questions about the form or fundraising, please contact Scott or Kameron Klosterman at klosterman@integrity.com or 864-278-0406.

Please mail completed application to: AMRBC, Attention Asheton Amerson, 4455 Anderson Mill Road, Moore, SC 29369.

Please remember that this scholarship money is intended to be a "last resort" after you have given all that you can personally and raised as much donor support as possible. If approved, the final amount will be determined and money will be transferred to your account ~ 1 month before the trip date to allow time for you to complete fundraising and personally save/contribute as much as possible. If, after your scholarship is paid, you receive additional contributions, please let the Acts 1:8 committee know, and we will transfer that portion of your scholarship money back into the general account to be used in the future as stipulated above.

I certify that I meet the criteria listed above and apply for a scholarship for a short term missions trip from AMRBC. I understand that I am encouraged to solicit donations from members or regular attenders of AMRBC only if they are family members or close personal friends.
